Dear Sanat:

I would like to take this opportunity, once again, to congratulate you on winning the Sustainable Design Honorable Mention for "Agricultural Robot" in the ET Foundation's 2021 Aluminum Extrusion Design Competition. Enclosed is a certificate recognizing your significant accomplishment.

There is no doubt that you are proud of your work and the ET Foundation is honored and pleased to share your accomplishment. News and information of your winning design has been posted on our website at www.ETFdesign.org. I encourage you to visit the website to view the entries of your fellow winners. Your design and entry materials may be included in the Extrusion Showcase at the Twelfth International Aluminum Extrusion Technology Seminar (ET'22), the premier technical conference for the worldwide aluminum extrusion industry, scheduled for May 3-5, 2022 in Orlando, Florida. Visit www.et22.org for information on ET '22 and Extrusion Showcase.

Thank you for participating in the Aluminum Extrusion Design Competition and we look forward to seeing more aluminum extrusion designs from you in the future!

Sincerely,

Nancy Molenda
